

Social Studies on the Front Burner Conference
Blending Economics into K-12 Curriculum
Resources, Instruction, Content

Registration Form

Dates and Locations: (Please check the conference you are planning to attend)

October 23rd, USM Abromson Center, Portland

October 26th, Morgan Hill Event Center, Hermon

Registration begins at 7:30 AM.

Conference times: 8:30 AM – 3:00 PM

Conference Fee: $35.00

Morning refreshments, lunch, and conference materials are included.

Please type or print:

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

District/School: _____

Address: _____

City/Town _____ Zip Code: _____

School Phone: _____ Home phone: _____

E-mail address _____

Grade level(s): _____ Course(s) taught: _____

Check one morning workshop and one afternoon workshop from these options:

Morning

- _____ Fire Up Those Laptops: Using Technology to Teach Economics (Grades K-12)
- _____ Even the Three Little Pigs Know Economics (Grades K-5)
- _____ Making Economics Relevant to Middle School Students (Grades 6-8)
- _____ Curricular Bipartisanship: Bringing Economics and Government Together in the Classroom (Grades 9-12)

Afternoon

- _____ Use EconEdLink.org to Move Your K-12 Instruction to the Web (Grades K-12)
- _____ Economics, Easy as 1-2-3: A 3-step Personal Finance Program Helps You Apply Mathematics to Everyday Life (Grades K-5)
- _____ Teaching U.S. History Through an Economic Lens (Grades 6-8)
- _____ Understanding Economics through World History (Grades 9-12)

If you have questions, please contact Rebecca Berger at rebecca.berger@maine.edu

Please send registration form along with $35.00 payment or purchase order no later than October 8th to:

Rebecca Berger
147 Vienna Rd
New Sharon, ME 04955

Make checks payable to: Maine Council for the Social Studies