AGENDA

9:00- 10:00 am Member's Social Hour
(continental breakfast)

10:00 - 11:00 am Short Term Rental,
Rockland's Experience

Speaker: John Root, CEO
City of Rockland

Rockland's Code Enforcement Officer found that according to the City's land use ordinance, short term rentals were not permitted. Working with the City Council, Stakeholders and residents for a year and a half, an ordinance permitting and regulating short term rental was developed. This presentation shows how Rockland developed the ordinance, how it is working, suggestions for other municipalities when adopting such ordinances and how Rockland avoided licensing facilities that would be regulated as Lodging or Rooming Houses under NFPA 101 Life Safety Code.

11:00 am - Noon Overview From the Perspective of a B&B Owner

Speaker: Cheryl Michaelsen
Accounting & Quantitative
Methods, Exec. MBA

Cheryl will be presenting an overview from the perspective of a B&B owner that compares the differences between the regulation and operation of a traditional B&B to short term vacation rentals and will detail the attributes they share, and the inequalities imposed as they relate to life safety codes, operating ordinances and taxation at local and state levels.

12:00-1:00 pm LUNCH
