Candidate Profiles:

Lewis Pinkham has served the Town of Milbridge as manager, tax collector, treasurer, road commissioner, code enforcement officer, welfare director, shellfish warden and sewer administrator for the past 18 years. He has also served the police department for 39 years, serving as Chief of Police for the past 27 years. Prior to that he served as Police Chief in the Towns of Steuben, Gouldsboro and Winter Harbor as well as Chair of the Union 96 School Board. Mr. Pinkham also serves on a number of local boards and committees, including the Washington County Budget Committee for the past 13 years. He has served the past four terms on the LPC and would like to continue his service to bring a strong voice from Washington County.

Harry Fish, Jr. has served the Town of Jonesport in several capacities for more than 31 years, most recently on the Selectboard for the past 12 years. Prior to that he was a School Board member for 15 years, Chairman of JES, CSD, Joint School Board's Board of Trustees for 10 years; Chairman of the Regional Planning Committee for school consolidation for two years; Town Assessor for three years; and member of the Harbor Committee for more than 25 years. He has served the past several terms on the LPC and would like to continue his service because he feels it is important to continue to work on appropriate state funding for revenue sharing, K-12 education subsidy and unfunded mandates and to help Washington County's small community voices to be heard.
