

JANUARY 22, 2025 HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMIT

Human Rights Summit 2025: New and expected developments in human rights law in Maine and New England

SAVE THE DATE for this one-day event, open to the public, to learn about the Maine Human Rights Commission, what we do, recent updates to the Maine Human Rights Act, and expected developments in human rights law in Maine and New England. Hosted by the Maine Human Rights Commission in partnership with local and regional organizations. Planned sessions include: discrimination in public accommodations under the Maine Human Rights Act, recent updates to the human rights law in Maine, the landscape of LGBTQ+ rights, how to be a better ally, and a roundtable with the MHRC and other human rights agencies from around New England, with speakers from the ACLU of Maine, GLAD, the Maine Human Rights Commission, and more!

Online or in-person. Registration for the general public open now. If you are interested in registering for CLEs, please fill out the registration form, indicate your interest, and we will send an email when CLE registration opens.

FREE REGISTRATION FOR NON-CLE TRACKS

CLE CREDITS TBA

EXPERT PANELISTS FROM LOCAL AND REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

MAINE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

www.maine.gov/mhrc

January 22, 2025

8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.